

dadoTM Bricks

Dado Bricks takes building toys to a whole new level - and a whole new scale!

Dado Bricks are cleverly designed cardboard bricks, similar to any other popular interlocking brick construction set, but bigger - in fact, MUCH BIGGER! These stacking cardboard bricks measure 12 inches long x 6 inches deep x 3 inches high. At long last, kids can use these stacking bricks to create kid-scale structures...walls, castles, forts, secret hide-outs, or even attractive room decor. Unlike other simple cardboard blocks on the market, the Dado Cardboard Bricks contain a protruding pair of square nubs along with a matching set of recessed square indentations. The result is a cardboard brick that when stacked, will not easily tumble and can retain a rigid structure. While cardboard blocks have been a staple in playrooms for decades, the Dado Cardboard Brick is the innovation kids have been waiting for!
